

Klimakursus Tromsø: Arktis ændres – hvad betyder det for os?

Sunday 26 Jan.	Monday 27 Jan.	Tuesday 28 Jan.	Wednesday 29	Thursday 30 Jan	Friday 31 Jan
FOCUS: Urban responses to climate change in the Arctic	FOCUS: Science and Arctic climate innovation	FOCUS: Climate change and the Arctic Blue Economy	FOCUS: Local impacts of climate change in Norway's Arctic north	FOCUS: Tools for climate change reporting in the Arctic	Goodbye and good luck
Arrival to the hotel 2 pm at the latest.	08.30 Arctic Frontiers opening plenary session	08.30 Climate change & the Arctic Blue Economy Select briefing with speaker(s) from Arctic Frontiers	08:00 Depart for Sami community And Fishing community. Tromsø-Sommarøy-Brendsholmen-Tromsø	09:00 Visit to a fish factory while fishermen deliver today's catch. Briefing by the director of the factory.
15.00 Briefing with Mayor of Tromsø: How the City of Tromsø, the Arctic capital of Norway, meets climate change	10:00 Special briefing With select speaker (s) from Arctic Frontiers	10:30 Field visits in collaboration with Bio Tech North, a cluster of 35 companies in biotech, biomarine, fishery, and aquaculture	Briefing by local representatives: How climate change affects Sami communities	12:00 Lunsj at the fish factory. Today's catch and another speciality. 13:00 Depart for Tromsø
17.00 Introduction to seminar theme: Tools for climate reporting	13.00 Briefing at Fram Centre, Tromsø: How science supports innovation for climate solutions – (practical examples)	(continued)	Visits reindeer herders	14:30 – 17:00 Discussion: New tools for climate change reporting
19.00 Opening reception Arctic Frontiers	Afternoon: field visit to relevant business case in Tromsø	17:00-19:30 Side Event, organised by NJC: Climate Change journalism.	(continued)	Galla Dinner + discussion: Next steps?
	Evening: Screening of documentary: Mikhail Barynins 24 snows (90 min.).		(continued overnight)	Goodbye party	